20 TB of information is collected from you at the very beginning of the process. Therefore, we can understand that you have a valid reason to speak with JetBrains and ask for license for free. It is not very expensive, but also not very cheap. And the latter is sometimes the most important to consider. The most important part of a person's life is a part of their business. It's the professional one, the one where all of their time and skills are dedicated to making their company and their customers better, more successful and more profitable. It's probably the area in your life that the largest part of your resources are spent in. Personal Information and Privacy We've discussed the process of this permission to access all of your personal information and data. It's like jumping into the world of Fallout 3, but one can see where everything is at this moment. There is something that you must remember while being a user of JetBrains Ultimate Collection: this is not a game where you can enter a house, have a conversation with a resident and then leave. Also, we can not discuss the terms and conditions of the licence on our website, because JetBrains, like many other business, considers it to be a violation of the personal privacy rights of the licence holder. The documents can be seen only upon application and renewal. JetBrains is the most recognizable of its time and the most important company among the developers. Let's get to the main subject of the article: how to use the JetBrains license for free? Visit to jetbrains.com/licensing Just go to JetBrains licensing site, create an account and log in to it. The website will ask you to enter the personal details for your account, like your name, address and telephone number. Your details will be kept in this tab, but they are not visible, so, obviously, your personal information will not be seen by anyone. After that, you will be asked about a number of personal options that are related to the licensing process. You can decide to store personal information, not to keep it, etc. Keep Personal Data in a Personal Tab You can choose to have a Personal Tab in the licensing service. If you want to use this service for yourself, you can do it. Just open a Personal Tab and read the licensing terms and conditions for free. You
